Data protection information - Our handling of your data and your rights - Information according to Art. 13, 14 and 21 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Status: 25 May 2018

We protect and respect your personal data

We respect and protect your privacy and comply with data protection regulations. This applies regardless of whether you are a legal representative of a TSI partner, an employee of a TSI partner attending TSI events, workshops or working meetings, or simply using our information services'

1 Which data and sources do we use?

We process personal data that we receive from the legal representatives and employees of partner companies within the framework of a TSI partnership and their application when employees of the partner register with TSI Events, contact us by e-mail or telephone or register for our online services or events. On the other hand, we process personal data which we have researched and are permitted to process from publicly accessible sources (e.g. commercial register, media) or which we receive from the partner company for the purpose of fulfilling our partner contract.

Relevant personal data may be:

Name, professional address/other contact details (e-mail address, telephone), title and optional position in the company, job title, account details, date/place of birth, photos, videos (in the context of events).

In the context of the business relationship, in particular through personal, telephone or written contacts initiated by the partner company, further personal data, e.g. information about the contact channel, date, occasion, result, (electronic) copies of the correspondence.

We do not collect special categories of personal data known as "sensitive data" e.g. religious affiliation.

2 What do we process your data for and on what legal basis?

We process your personal data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG):

a. For the fulfilment of contractual or similar obligations (Art. 6 para. 1b GDPR)

Personal data is processed in order to fulfil our obligations under the partner contract (establishment and implementation of a partnership with TSI) and within the framework of the implementation of contracts with third parties, service providers/suppliers. Our fields of activity result from the partner contract and the list of services.

b. In the context of weighing up interests (6 para. 1f GDPR)

Where necessary, we process the data to protect our legitimate interests or those of a third party (e.g. representation of the rights and interests of our partners to promote Germany as a securitisation location, marketing for our events). If, for example, contact data is collected during an event, we store it for future contact in connection with our specialist events.

c. On the basis of consent (Art. 6 para. 1a GDPR)

If we have given our consent to the processing of personal data for certain purposes (e.g. to receive our newsletter), the processing of these data is legal on the basis of this consent. A given consent can be revoked at any time. This also applies to declarations of consent that were given to us before the DS-GMO was valid, i.e. before 25 May 2018. You can exercise your right to revoke your consent at any time. You can contact the management of True Sale International GmbH, Mainzer Landstraße 61, 60329 Frankfurt am Main.

3 Who has access to your data?

Within the TSI, only those persons who need access to your data to perform our tasks arising from our contractual relationship will have access to it. The processing is carried out by the TSI employees entrusted with the processing, who are bound to secrecy, so that your interests are adequately protected during the processing of the data. Contractors used by us (in accordance with Article 28 DS-GMO) may also receive data for these purposes.

4 How long do we store your data?

Where necessary, we process and store partner-related data for the duration of your company's partner contract with TSI or if business relations exist with you within the framework of transactions, events, etc. If the data are no longer required for the fulfilment of our contractual purpose or statutory obligations, they are regularly deleted, unless their - temporary - storage is still necessary. The periods for storage and documentation specified there range from two to ten years. The limitation periods under civil law can be up to 30 years, whereby the regular limitation period is three years.

5 What data protection rights do you have?

Any person concerned has the right to

- information referred to in Article 15 GDPR,
- Correction under Article 16 GDPR,
- Deletion under Article 17 GDPR,
- Restriction of processing under Article 18 GDPR,
- Opposition under Article 21 GDPR and
- Data transferability in accordance with Article 20 GDPR.
